UW-Madison Professional Development and Recognition Committee (PDRC)

The PDRC announces the 2019 Division of Continuing Studies Course Grant competition.

MEMORANDUM
TO: UW-Madison Academic Staff
FROM: Professional Development and Recognition Committee (PDRC)
     Martha Reck, Chair
RE: 2019 DCS Course Grants

The Professional Development and Recognition Committee – in coordination with the Division of Continuing Studies and the Office of the Secretary of the Academic Staff – is announcing the 2019 Academic Staff DCS Course Grant Competition. This program provides recipients with free single-course enrollments in select courses offered by DCS for UW-Madison Academic Staff.

The main objectives of the grants are individual professional development, improved program quality, and improved institutional effectiveness.

The list of available courses and their corresponding dates can be found at https://acstaff.wisc.edu/dcs-course-grants. Grants will only be awarded for courses on this list.

There is no cost to your department or unit.

The PDRC will select recipients for the course grants based on how the course will help academic staff improve effectiveness in their current position, as well as importance to the unit/department or school/college/division.

Applications must include:

1. Completed online application form, which includes the course title, course date(s), and a statement about how the course will improve your effectiveness in your current position
2. Resume (as it applies to the proposal; a full CV is not necessary)
3. A letter of support from your supervisor identifying how this course will impact the applicant, unit, department or division

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION
Please submit all of the required information by the end of the day on Friday, March 1, online at: https://apps.ohr.wisc.edu/staffdev/

For other information, including an FAQ document, go to https://acstaff.wisc.edu/dcs-course-grants. If you have further questions, please contact Jake Smith at 263-2985 or pdrc@soas.wisc.edu.